An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David Meibos on 9-13-05.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims:

8. (Currently Amended) A method as in claim 1 wherein said bearing material layer comprises of a Co-Cr layer comprising an alloy comprised of cobalt (Co) and chromium (Cr).

In claim 30, line 1, after 'heats said' insert –bearing material--.

In claim 44, line 1, after 'heats said' insert –bearing material--.

Cancel claim 45.

In claim 51, line 1, delete "28" and insert therefore –42--.

In claim 55, line 1, delete "31" and insert therefore –52--.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art such as Davidson (US 5,498,302) teaches implants formed of biomedical compatible metal substrate materials comprising surface deposits of bearing material such a cobalt chromium and other material alloys. The prior art teaches that such bearing material deposits are applied by methods such as plasma spray.

Other prior art such as Cotell (US 5,242,706) teaches implants formed by depositing ceramic materials onto the surface of a substrate wherein the deposits are formed by laser based deposition.

Additional prior art such as Takano (US 5,611,306) teaches deposition of bearing material onto the surface of a substrate such as a part of an engine wherein the deposition is enacted by a laser beam.

However, the prior art does not teach or suggest forming implants wherein coatings of bearing metal material are deposited by a laser based deposition.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
